

He asks me for something every day, and for things he can make no possible use of, simply out of acquisitiveness. . He has got from me among many other things a new embroidered saddle-cloth, a double-bladed knife, an Indian Jcamarland, many yards of silk, a large pair of scissors, bracelets for his wife and daughter, and working materials, and now he has set his heart on a large combination knife, which is invaluable to me. "What use

AZIZ KHAN.